

ARYAVARTA SOCIETY

Richard Lee Willis

President

Richard holds university degrees in International Relations, Diplomacy and Communications and went on to study western psychology and transformative therapies. He lived in India for 12 years studying with diverse Masters of Yoga, Sufism and Indian Philosophy. Every year since, for the past fifty years, he has returned to continue his pursuit of knowledge with accomplished Teachers, Mystics and Yoga Masters.

Richard is a Master of Yogic Disciplines sharing his knowledge through Individual & Group Teachings in Yoga, Meditation and Eastern Philosophy for over 4 decades. He is one of the few living Teachers of Triadic Mysticism, the Ancient Yoga of Kashmir.

In 1975 he founded the OPEN SECRET, a center of Transformative Learning in Zurich and developed and leads the Curve of Silence Inner Work Retreats throughout Europe and India.

He has worked as a Consultant in the corporate field and Leadership Trainer in ZfU - Center for General Management in Switzerland - among others, bringing traditional Eastern and Western Teachings into a modern context to actualize a meaningful spiritual life in a materialistic world.

Today he continues as a personal consultant teaching self empowering techniques to better cope with pressure and stress and realize unfulfilled potential.

In his business consultancy he emphasizes philosophical and spiritual perspectives to guarantee sustainability in business and in personal life; he not only helps his clients to realize what is possible but what is in line with their Higher Purpose and supported by their individual Destiny. It is not just what we want, it is what is Willed.

He is the Founding member of a one of a kind Motorcycle Club in Arizona, "The Die To Live MC". Our Mandate: "We ride out hard, we ride out loud, then turn IN to a quiet place and sit in stillness."

In 2007 he founded the Aryavarta Society and has been president of the Verein since then.

Married in 1984, he lives with his wife in Zurich and part time in Arizona.

*"From my youth on I searched for Enlightenment.
Along the way I found my humanity.
Wonder of Wonders! Maybe that's it."*
